

"WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME CUT?
WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME LEAVE OUT?"

BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

“What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?”

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

A Flagrant Foul

The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) is putting on a full court press to spend federal taxpayer dollars – including giving the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, MA more than \$3.7 million from Biden’s Bailout Bill.

Asking hardworking American taxpayers to bailout a museum dedicated to a multi-billion-dollar sports enterprise made up of multi-millionaires? That seems a bit of a technical foul if you ask us.

And to fund this type of spending, Washington Democrats insisted on adding $2 trillion to our nation’s debt.

On second thought, this seems more worthy of a flagrant foul call.

Stay tuned for more.
