BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

“What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?”

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Fumbled Priorities

High schools across the country are kicking off this Fall football season with new weight rooms, turf fields, and resurfaced outdoor tracks paid for by so-called “emergency Covid relief” funding from the Biden Bailout Bill.

According to the AP, “it’s impossible to know exactly how many schools are using pandemic relief on athletics.” Districts are required to tell states how they’re spending the money, but some schools are using local funding for sports projects and then replacing it with the federal relief — a maneuver that skirts reporting requirements.”

Washington Democrats are hitting taxpayers on their blind side while leaving schools wide open to score a few extra points for their athletic departments.

Stay tuned for more.
