BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

“What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?”

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Free Wheeling Spending

The city of Wheeling, West Virginia is trying to figure out how to spend $26 million that they received from the Biden Bailout Bill to supposedly combat COVID-19. Local leaders recently settled on their priorities:

“...infrastructure projects, alley paving, razing dilapidated structures, investing in recreational facilities and cleaning up neighborhoods should be high on the priority list. Officials noted that certain infrastructure projects that are already on the books for the future could be funded with ARP money...”

In other words...projects on their local wish list.

None of those items are related to fighting COVID-19, but city leaders are clearly hoping that in the spirit of John Denver, the American taxpayer will have no problem building those country roads...to take them home

Stay tuned for more.
