

"WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME CUT?
WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME LEAVE OUT?"

BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

The Spa Treatment

Broward County, Florida is spending $140 million of its Biden Bailout funds to build a 29-story, 800-room luxury hotel:

"When complete, the high-end hotel will have views of the Atlantic Ocean and an 11,000-square-foot spa."

Large capital projects like a luxury hotel are supposedly prohibited under Treasury Department rules. But that didn't stop county commissioners from booking the hotel anyway:

"In a back-to-back series of unopposed votes, commissioners clawed back the federal money they had given to the hotel. They then transferred it to the county's general fund... Then the cash was transferred from the general fund right back to the project."

This "spa" treatment of the American taxpayer is not particularly refreshing.

Stay tuned for more.
