

"WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME CUT?
WHAT WOULD THEY HAVE ME LEAVE OUT?"

BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Unwise Failures of Common Sense

Pop Quiz: What do horse races, social-media influencers, NASCAR, and moonshine all have in common?

You guessed it! They are all being funded by President Biden's so-called COVID-relief plan:

- $7.2 million in Arizona to "boost purses at three of its horse tracks."
- $7 million in Alaska for "social-media influencers to promote the state's famous seafood."
- $40 million in North Carolina for "improvements to a speedway for Nascar races" and $5 million for "building new walking trails dedicated to the history of moonshine."

In response, the Biden Administration is shrugging its shoulders. Here's American Rescue Plan "czar" Gene Sperling:

"...[I]t's inevitable that there will be some uses that meet the legal test but don't meet the common sense or wisdom test."

You know what else fails the "common sense or wisdom test"? Racing to spend $2 trillion like you've been downing moonshine.

Stay tuned for more.
