

CHAIR JODEY ARRINGTON

HOUSE BUDGET COMMITTEE

Chairman Arrington Applauds Confirmation of Russell Vought for OMB Director

WASHINGTON, D.C. – House Budget Committee Chair Jodey Arrington (R-Texas) released the following statement on the Senate’s confirmation of Russell Vought to be the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB):

"Russ Vought is one of the brightest and most principled budget policy leaders in the country. I have the utmost confidence in his commitment to protecting our tax dollars against wasteful spending, our citizens against federal overreach, and our children against the spending addiction that's bankrupting our country. Let's Reverse the Curse and Make Budgets Balance Again!"

The OMB helps the President manage the federal budget and oversees the performance of federal agencies. The Director of the OMB will be key in working with President Trump to implement the President’s commitments and priorities and execute a budget that wisely spends American taxpayer dollars.

# #

