HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Rewriting the Rules

New Jersey's Department of Human Services is using federal taxpayer dollars to send COVID-19 stimulus checks to individuals that Americans were told were not eligible to receive COVID-19 stimulus checks – including illegal immigrants:

"...a one-time, direct cash benefit to eligible low-income households that were excluded from federal stimulus checks and pandemic-related unemployment assistance. This includes undocumented individuals..."

They were "excluded" because under the law they were ineligible – or so we were told by Democrats.

So, who gave New Jersey permission to do this with federal tax dollars?

"Under new federal rules released this month for the American Rescue Plan - State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds, the U.S. Treasury now permits the State to forego certain documentation requirements that were required under prior sources of funding."

Of course. The Biden Administration.

Stay tuned for more.
