BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

Spring Break

Thanks to American taxpayers, Pennsylvania State University students will soon be able to get to their spring break much faster:

"Good news for spring breakers — State College's University Park Airport announced a new nonstop flight to Charlotte...The county used $250,000 in funding from the American Rescue Plan Act to create an incentive package for the airline to add the connecting flight..."

Bring on the good times and cold drinks. But remember, too much of a good thing quickly leads to unpleasant results – like when Democrats spent $2 trillion and ignited the worst inflation crisis in more than a generation.

Thankfully, there is relief for the inflation hangover left by one-party Democrat rule in Washington: a new House Republican majority that will curb reckless spending and prioritize working class families.

Stay tuned for more.
